Christ, who offers us perfect peace in a world that offers none. As it has in so many other times and places, may this time of unrest and persecution serve to ignite the Gospel in ways we can't even imagine. We know that You can do more than we ask or imagine, and it is in this confidence that we ask these things in your name. Amen

PRAY for Ukraine

Edited from: <https://www.crosswalk.com/faith/prayer/a-powerful-prayer-for-the-ukraine.html>

Lord,

We thank you that in every situation, every dark moment, You are active and working among us. Even when things seem at their bleakest, we trust in Your sovereignty and strength. In John 16:33 You said, "in this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world." We accept the fact that this world and the troubles we face in it have been overcome, and rest in the knowledge that You have the power to move in any and situation.

As we watch war unfold in Ukraine, we ask for Your grace and peace to rule in the hearts and minds of all involved. God, we pray fervently for the people of Ukraine. The situation they now face is not a new one. The name Ukraine translates to "borderland," and it has been viewed for centuries as just that - a bordering land waiting to be conquered.

Proverbs 21:1 says, "The king's heart is a stream of water in the hand of the Lord; he turns it wherever he will." We pray this now, that You would work in the hearts of world leaders and diplomats, and incline them toward peace. We pray for these who are making decisions that affect so many, as they work through diplomacy. We ask, God, that You would move their hearts to peace; that an alternative to war could be found and that You would be honored in it.

We lift up the many brothers and sisters doing Your work in Ukraine. [N]umerous missionaries, pastors, and church leaders... are actively on the ground serving the Ukrainian people daily. We ask for their protection, and that they be able to freely continue serving You and the people around them. We also ask that they would be unafraid and unashamed of Your word, and that You would enable them to walk in Your strength and stand firm against the evil that faces them now. We pray that in the face of fear, believers in Ukraine will find opportunities to hold out the Good News of
